

> User's manual

Get Videofied, visit us at www.videofied.com.au

videofied®

Made by RSI VIDEO TECHNOLOGIES

Arming your system in Monitoring Mode

1. From the keypad integrated in the panel

- Put your hand on the keypad for activation, the back light turns on.
- Enter your access code and confirm with OK or
- After the confirmation bip, the panel emits two bips to validate the command and start the delay sequence.

Notice: In case of typing error, use

2. From the badge reader integrated in the panel

- Present the badge in front of the panel and match the badge logo with the panel logo. Wait for the two bips confirming the badge has been read and the start of the delay sequence.

Arming your system in Partial Arming Mode

From the keypad integrated in the panel

- Put your hand on the keypad for activation, the back light turns on.
- Enter your access code and confirm with
- After the confirmation bip, the panel emits two bips to validate the command and start the delay sequence.

Notice: In case of typing error, use

Notice: If a door contact has been left open during the arming sequence, the panel will emit two short bips every two seconds.

The  and the  blink red and the display  indicates the N° of the device in question.

Disarming your system

1. From the keypad integrated in the panel

- ➔ Put your hand on the keypad for activation, the back light turns on.
- ➔ Enter your access code and confirm with OK or . The red padlock stops blinking. Your system is turned off.

Notice: In case of typing error, use .

2. From the badge reader integrated in the panel

- ➔ Present the badge in front of the panel and match the badge logo with the panel logo. Wait for the two bips confirming the badge has been read. The red padlock stops blinking. Your system is turned off.

Panic Alert

From the keypad integrated in the panel

- ➔ Put your hand on the keypad for activation, the back light turns on.
- ➔ Maintain your finger on  for 2 seconds. After three short bips, the panel emits a loud bip and the 3 panic buttons are illuminated.

3 Panic Buttons

: Request Police dispatch.

: Request Ambulance dispatch.

: Request Fire Department dispatch.

Notice:

To exit the panic menu,
wait for 15 seconds
or touch .

- ➔ Touch the button corresponding to the emergency type. All sirens will immediately start sounding.

- ➔ To stop the sirens, enter your access code and validate with OK

Disarming your system after an alarm

1. From the keypad integrated in the panel

- Put your hand on the keypad for activation, the back light turns on.
- Enter your access code and confirm with OK or
- The panel emits four rapid bips indicating there was an alarm.

2. From the badge reader integrated in the panel

- Present the badge in front of the panel and match the badge logo with the panel logo. Wait for the two bips. Your system is off.
- The panel emits four rapid bips indicating there was an alarm.

Alarm Meaning

: Tamper (The enclosure of a device has been open).

: Intrusion.

: Technical issue.

➤ You must validate the info and touch OK

➤ On the red display  is indicated the N° of the device.
which caused the alarm or the technical issue
0 => for the panel
1 à 19 => Number of the device in question.

➤ You must then validate the device and touch OK

Your Dealer

